

Map reproduced by permission of Kent Henderson 2007

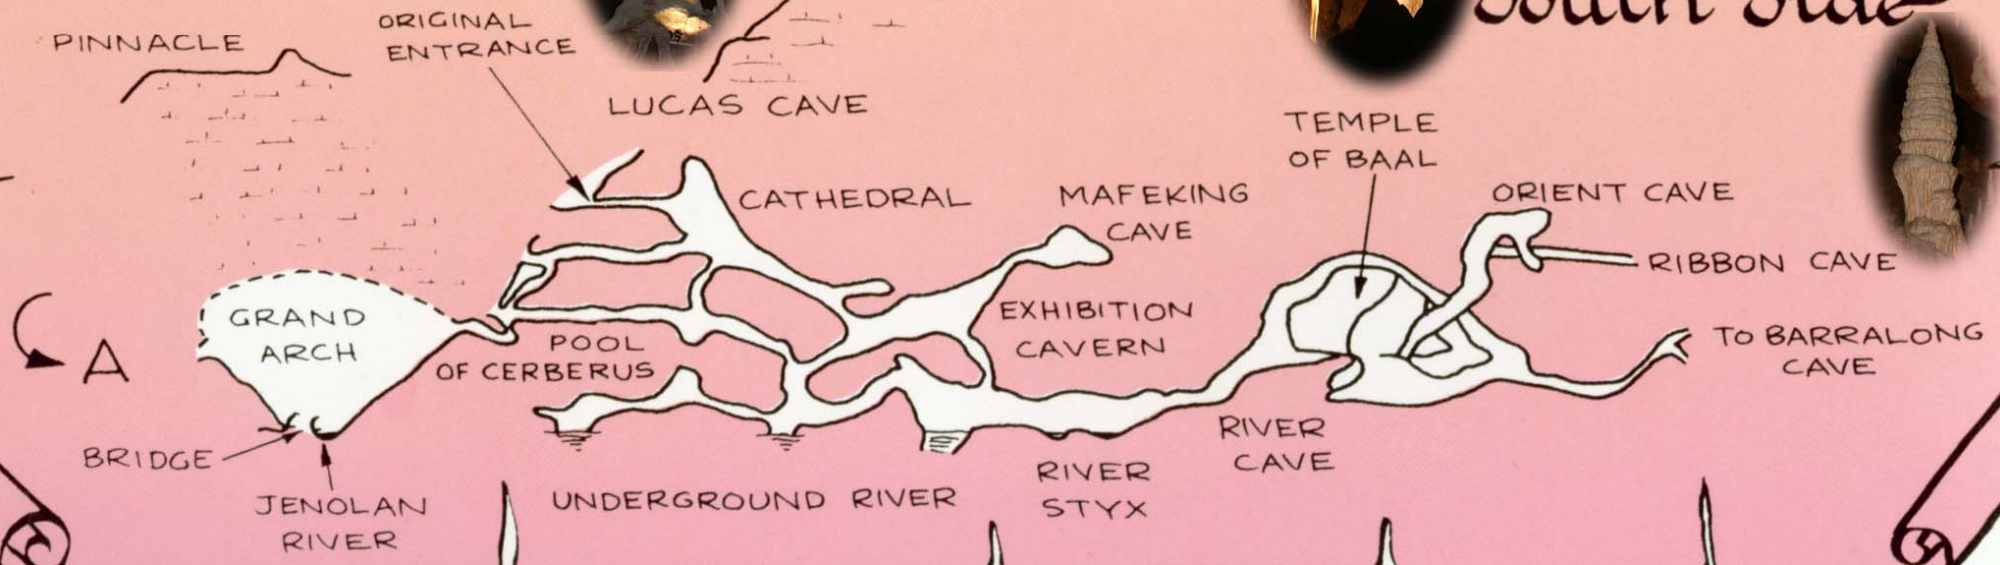

Jenolan Caves

North Side

South Side

PENNY GNIEL 5.90

The Jenolan Guide

www.jenolan.com

Lucas Cave
Most popular of the caves.
Discovered 1860
Length 860m
Includes Cathedral, underground river, Broken Column and largest chamber

Orient Cave
Regarded by many as the prettiest cave
Discovered 1904
Length 470m
Includes Persian, Egyptian and Indian Chambers. Masses of curly helictites

River Cave
Popular for the river but also the decoration
Discovered 1903
Length 1271m
Includes massive decorations like the Grand Column and many mysterious twisting passageways

Temple of Baal
A cave that never ceases to amaze.
Discovered 1904
Length 365m
Includes Angels Wing, Baal, Gabriels Wing—much red and orange decoration

Chifley Cave
First cave in the world lit by electric light. Coloured lights in sections.
Discovered 1881
Length 690m

Jubilee Cave
A cave dominated by very fine decoration..
Discovered 1892
Length 1575m
A small group means an intimate tour

Imperial Cave
Easiest of all tours
Discovered 1879 Length 1070m
Includes Underground River

Cerberus Cave
Discovered 1903. A beautiful cave inspected by small groups

Nettle Cave
The only tour you go on without a guide.
Discovered 1845